

2015, July - USA, Plymouth, NH

FEMLINK: INTERNATIONAL VIDEO ARTS COLLECTIVE VIDEO COLLAGE SCREENING: AGGRESSION

*6-7:30 pm, Thursday, July 16, 2015 at the Pease Public Library, Plymouth, NH
Q & A with FemLink co-creator, C.M. Judge
Free and Open to the Public*

Video Still: Yo, Carolina by Sara Malinarich (Chile)

The New Hampshire Women's Caucus for Art will host a screening of the FemLink video collage AGGRESSION, which deals with attitudes around the topic of violence, forcefulness, and assertiveness. From moving works that memorialize the fallen, such as Vouvoula Skoura's (Greece) In Memory of a 15 Year Old Boy who was killed by a policeman in Athens to the humorously frenetic tug-of-war video X on the Shore by Hiroko Okada (Japan), the collage offers glimpses into this all too familiar topic -- except this time, one experiences a wide range of diverse, deeply thoughtful reactions through the eyes of 23 women artists from around the world.